

SEJAL GUPTA

Sejal Gupta holds a Masters in Forensic Science from the University of Strathclyde, Scotland and has recently graduated with a LLB from the Government Law College, Mumbai. She also has diplomas in Entrepreneurship Management, Distance Learning from Welingkar Institute of Management Development & Research, and in Computer Forensics held in collaboration with Asian Cyber Law and St. Xavier's College, Mumbai. Additionally, she has participated in various workshops, conferences and seminars pertaining to Forensic Sciences, and she has represented India in the "Second Youth Congress on Drug Abuse Prevention" in Maldives, 2003, where drug awareness issues were discussed with members from other SAARC nations. She is currently a lecturer for the Diploma Course in Forensic Science & Criminal Law & Online Certificate Course in Forensic Science at St. Xavier's College, Mumbai, and a member of the Board of Studies (BOS) for all the Forensic Science courses in St. Xavier's College. At FACTS, she is a forensic consultant, and has designed and conducted several training workshops pertaining to forensic science. Additionally, she has conducted guest lectures and Certificate Programs and various colleges in Mumbai. She has also interned with the Mumbai Police where she learnt the working of the police and the relationship with the forensic science lab in Mumbai, analyzed burglary crime scenes for academic purposes, and prepared a portable Forensic Kit and presented it to the Mumbai Police. Sejal brings to FACTS over 5 years of training and consultancy experience. She is a member of the American Academy of Forensic Science, USA and the Chartered Society of Forensic Science, UK. Her specializations in which she offers consultancy are forensic serology and cases related to DNA